A MODEL LOVE LETTER-A BREACH OF PROMISE CASE .- (From the Buffalo Commereial Advertiser.)-Myres vs. Harris.-This was one of those rare and peculiar cases-breach of promise of marriage-and occupied the greater part of the forenoon. From the evidence, it appears that the parties both live in or near Onondaga, that Harris had been a frequent visitor for about two years and a half at the house of the plaintiff-a widow woman nearly thirty years of age, with three children. It seems to have been the opinion of the friends of the plaintiff (and no doubt she thought so herself) that Harris would marry her; but he (Harris) from some unaccountable cause, a few months ago, suddenly discovered that he loved another young lady better, and verified his belief a short time since by marrying that other lady. Hence this action was brought by the plaintiff to recover damages, to apply as a salve to her wounded affections. The following tender epistle, sent by the loving swain, will interest our readers, and we recommend it as a model love letter:

"My DEAR MRS. M: Every time I think of you my heart flops up and down like a churndasher. Sensations of unutterable joy caper over it like young goats on a stable roof, and thrill through it like Spanish needles through a pair of tow linen trousers. As a gosling swimmith with delight in a mud-puddle, so swim I in a sea of glory. Visions of ecstatic rapture thicker than the hairs of a blacking brush, and brighter than the eyes of a humming bird's pinions, visit me in my slumbers, and, borne on their invisible wings, your image stands before me, and I reach out to grasp it. like a pointer snapping at a blue bottle fly.

When I first beheld your angelic perfections

I was bewildered, and my brain whirled around like a bumble bee under a glass tumbler. My eyes stood open like cellar doors in a country town, and I lifted up my ears to catch the silvery accents of your voice. My tongue refused to wag, and in silent adoration 1 drank in the sweet infection of love as a thirsty man swalloweth a tumbler of hot whisky punch.

"Since the light of your face fell upon my life I sometimes feel as if I could lift myself up by my boot-straps to the top of the church steeple, and pull the bell rope for singing school. Day and night you are in my thoughts. When Aurora, blushing like a bride, rises from her saffron colored couch; when the jaybird pipes his tuneful lay in the apple tree by the spring house; when the chanticleer's shrill clarion heralds the coming morn; when the awakening pig arises from his bed and grunteth, and goeth for his morning refreshments; when the drowsy beetle wheels to drobing flight at sultry noontide; and when the lowing herds come home at milking time, I think of thee; and like a piece of gum clastic, my heart seems stretched clear across my bosom. Your hair is like the mane of a sorrel horse powdered with gold; and the brass pins skewered through your waterfall fill me with unbounded awe.

Your forehead is smoother than the elbow of an old coat. Your eyes are glorious to behold. In their liquid depths I see legions of little cupids bathing, like a cohort of ants it an old army cracker. When their fire hit me upon my manly breast, it penetrated my whole anatomy, as a load of birdshot through a rotten apple. Your nose is from a chunk of Parian marble, and your mouth is puckered with sweetness. Nectar lingers on your lips, like honey on a bear's paw; and my myriads of unfledged kisses are there, ready to fly out and light somewhere, like bluebirds out of their parent's nest. Your laugh rings in my cars prise that the demand for NATTANS CRYS like the wind harp's strain, or the bleat of the TAL DISCOVERY, admitted to be perfectly stray lamb on a bleak hillside. The dimples harmless, and yet accomplish all, and more, than on your cheeks are like bowers in beds of roses, the poisonous articles claim to do, should have or hollows in cakes of homemade sugar.

"I am dying to fly to thy presence, and pour out the burning eloquence of my love, as thrifty housewives pour out hot coffee. Away from you I am as melancholy as a sick rat. Sometimes I can hear the June bugs of despondency buzzing in my cars, and teel the cold fizards of despair erawling down my back. Uncouth fears, like a thousand minnows, nibble at my spirits; and my soul is pierced with doubts like an old cheese is bored with skippers.

My love for you is stronger than the smell of Coffey's patent butter, or the kick of a young cow, and more unselfish than a kitten's first caterwaul. As a song bird hankers for the light of day, the cautious mouse for the fresh bacon in the trap, as a mean pup hankers for new milk, so I long for thee.

"You are fairer than a speekled pullet, sweeter than a Yankee doughnut fried in sorghum molasses, brighter than a topplumage on the head of a muscovy duck. You are candy, kisses, raisins, pound cake, and sweetened toddy altogether.

"If these few remarks will enable you to see the inside of my soul, and me to win your affections, I shall be as happy as a woodpecker on a cherry tree, or a stage horse in a green pasture. If you cannot reciprocate my thrilling passions, I will pine away like a poisoned bedbug, and fall away from a fourishing vine of life an untimely branch; and in coming years, when the shadows grow from the hills, and the philosophical frog sings his cheerfut evening hymns, you, happy in another's love, can come and drop a tear and catch a cold upon the last resting place of

Under date of April 26th, 1871, Dr. HENRY J. ROGERS, 68 Sharp street, Baltimore, an eminent physician, writes regarding

CRYSTAL DISCOVERY:

"It affords me much pleasure to bear testimony as to the efficacy of your Crystal Discovery. Some years since, while in India, I suffered from a severe fever peculiar to the country. On my recovering, a patch of hair on the left side of my head became perfectly white, without at all affecting the remainder. To remove this unsightly ize a Virginia house. Put it to the test. appearance, I had recourse to various preparations, both in Europe and in this country; but they all had one great defect—they dyed the hair black. Now, with your Crystal Discovery, I can get the desired shade—the natural color of my hair being dark brown. I consider your Discovery the best preparation I know of.

Yours truly, HENRY J. ROGERS. Now as the fact becomes more patent every day that the various dirty and filthy preparations advertised as Renewers, Restoratives, &c., are but compounds of Sugar of Lead and Sulphur, and therefore should be shunned by all who increased so rapidly. It restores the color and growth of the hair positively in a few days; strengthens the roots, makes an excellent dressing, soiling neither clothes nor scalp; but on the look, removing all dandruff and scurf. SEWING MACHINES.

HOWE'S IMPROVED

Lock-Stitch Sewing Machines

Are world-renowned for durability and simplicity of machinery, the perfection of the tensions, and the unparalleled wide range of work they are capable of performing without change or readjustment.

At the great "Exposition Universelle" in Paris, in 1867, they were awarded the highest prize -a massive Gold Medal-over 82 competitors; and the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor was conferred on Elias Howe as the original inventor of the Sewing Machine.

The growing appreciation of their characteristic excellence by the intelligent people of this country was clearly shown by the unprecedented sales of the Howe Sewing Machine during the past year, being far in excess of those of any other one patent. More than 1000 of these excellent machines are in daily use in the cities of Washington and Georgetown, and of this very large number a single case of dissatisfaction cannot be found.

They make the "Howe," or "Lock-Stitch," which has the same beautiful appearance on either side of the fabric sewed, and they are the only machines that make this beautiful stitch to perfection.

A branch office has been recently established at No. 105, King street. If you are prejudiced in favor of any particular machine, at least examine the Howe before you purchase. Remember that Mr. Howe was the original inventor of the Sewing Machine, and gave twenty years of his life to perfecting this machine.

Every Howe Machine is warranted for ten rears' constant use by the company, and is kept always in perfect order by the local agency. Purchasers are thoroughly instructed at their residences, by competent instructresses, in overy variety of plain and ornamental sewing. An efficient lady operator will be in constant attendance at the office, and machine stitching of every description will be neatly and promptly executed. J. KARR, General Agent, 629 Pa. av., Washington, D. C., and 105 King st., Alexandria, Va.

E. S. FLEMING, Manager Alex. aug 12-1m SEWING MACHINE SALES FOR 1870. THE SINGER STILL TRIUMPHANT.

In 1869 we sold 86,781 machines, and last year 127,853, being 44,000 more than any other machine. From this it will be seen that our rivals in trade have been left far behind us, and the popularity of what is known as our NEW FAMILY MACHINE is steadily and largely increasing. We are not so vain as to suppose that these large sales are due to superior business capacity so much as to the merits of the machine. One hundred and the merits of the machine. One hundred and twenty are now in daily use in this city. Matchines sold on the most liberal terms. 1 Tucker, 1 Corder, 1 Feller, 1 Hemmer, 1 Brauder, 1 dozen with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with Needles, &c., given away, with each Machine, without extra charge. __C.
